

Private vehicle travel reimbursement (for clients) fees

If you travel in a private car to and from treatment related to your transport accident injuries, we can pay 30 cents for each kilometre your car travels.

Please complete a Travel expense declaration form to make a claim.

This fee should be read in conjunction with the policy on travel benefits.

How we calculate the private vehicle travel reimbursement rate

The reimbursement rate calculates the "average" running costs and vehicle depreciation associated with travelling extra distances for defined purposes associated with a TAC claim.

The running costs are made up of the following factors:

- Tyres
- Service/repairs
- Fuel

The TAC will review and update this rate annually.

This Payment Limit relates to the following services
